8th Graders Experience a Once-in-a-Lifetime Moment

Last week, our 8th-grade students experienced a once-in-a-lifetime moment during what was already a deeply meaningful visit to the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C.

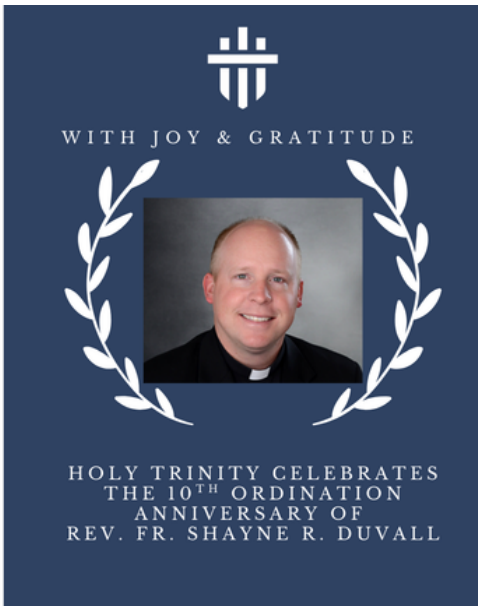

As we were driving to the Basilica, we had no idea that we would witness history in the making. As we approached the Basilica, we learned the announcement that Pope Leo XIV would be the first American ever elected to the Chair of St. Peter. As we came up to the Basilica, the great bells of the bell tower were ringing out in a joyful, resounding chorus. The bells continued to ring, and then, to our amazement, an American flag was unfurled from the Basilica's bell tower, a powerful symbol of unity between our nation and the universal Church. The moment was truly electric and moving.

For our 8th graders, this visit to the Basilica was already meant to be a time of reflection and reverence as they prepare to graduate. But God had something even greater in store. To be present at the National Shrine—the spiritual heart of Catholic America—at the moment of the announcement of an American pope is something none of us will ever forget.

Respectfully,
Jack Richards
